

I heard that the government is considering changing the Wisconsin no call list to enable telemarketers to call for more periods than now allowed. I absolutely oppose this. I wish that we could expand the no call list to include not for profits (on a choice by choice basis). I am considering no longer giving money out to anyone who calls me because I am tired of this interruption. Please do not weaken what we already have in place.